Dawning Of A Public Spirit

"Years ago, when children's programmes were being widely criticized, some radio men defended certain shows as 'not bad.' 'Not bad' is a rejoinder was made—'Not bad' is not good enough for a medium that can mould the future of America.' Here was the negative not-doin' any-harm attitude in sharp clash with the positive not doing any good attitude.

"Many broadcasters entered radio under the incomplete impression that broadcasting was a business—and that they were business men. It would be truer, we think, to say that a broadcaster is also and, incidentally, a business man, but first and foremost he is the custodian of a part of the public domain which he is charged with devoting to the public interest.

"Radio today is doing a lot for education, charity, religion, science, public discussion. In doing so it shows a shrewd awareness of its responsibility. It must hold its ground and continue to advance.

"One suggestion, in line with much of the best modern thought, might be that radio recognize that the preservation and protection of the middle class

C. B. C. NATIONAL NEWS SERVICE

"This is the national news bulletin brought to you by the CBC." Since Wednesday, January 1, 1941, this has been the introduction to the National News Service, formerly provided through the courtesy of the Canadian Press. The CBC has established news bureaus in its five programme regions at Halifax, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver. It has staffed these bureaus with writers qualified, through long service in handling news, for the exacting and important task of providing listeners in Canada with up to the minute reports on the war, world affairs in general, and items of particular interest to Canadians.

Since the inception of the CBC National News Service, four fifteen minute bulletins and two shorter bulletins have been presented each day over the nine stations owned by the CBC and, in addition, over a network of 25 privately owned stations. The CBC News Service will continue to be a sustaining service, and it will be written by the news staffs in the five regional centres and announced by staff announcers of the CBC.

The aim of the CBC in establishing its own news service is to provide bulletins which are dependable, authoritative and unbiased. The bureaus will write their news from the services provided by the Canadian Press and the United Press, which are supplied to the daily newspapers throughout the country.

The establishment of its own news department is in keeping with the CBC's policy of providing an adequate broadcast service to Canadian listeners and holding itself responsible for that service from creation to presentation.

THE WORLD OF WHEAT

(By H. G. L. Strang) Director—The Crop Testing Plan Laboratory.

A very great deal of thought and care, of painstaking experiment and testing, has been expended on this new variety. Besides being resistant to stem rust, Regent wheat has a high resistance to leaf rust. In all round general qualities Regent is well adapted to occupy a high place; its yield is high, milling and baking qualities acceptable to millers, strength of straw is good and it is at least as early as any of the other rust resistant varieties; so any farmer who needs a rust resistant wheat cannot go far wrong in trying Regent.

It is interesting to know that this variety represents the culmination of the best efforts of a number of our Canadian scientists in many fields of specialized work: i.e. our plant breeders, plant pathologists, cerealists, statisticians and cereal chemists, workers associated with the Dominion Plant Research Laboratory, the Board of Grain Commissioners' Laboratory, the National Research Council, our three Western Universities and the many Dominion Experimental Farms; the efforts of all being coordinated by a committee representing these institutions.

Canada can well be proud of Regent wheat, the result of the work of these talented scientists, for Regent will add to the income of our farmers, and so to the wealth of the whole of Canada.

W.A. Holds Annual Meeting

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Anglican Church held their Annual meeting at the home of the President, Mrs. Cecil Lambert, on Tuesday, January 7th for the purpose of electing new officers for 1941. The ladies elected are as follows—

President—Mrs. E. N. Bidley.
Vice-President—Mrs. J. Downie.
Secretary—Miss V. Hyde.
Treasurer—Mrs. W. I. McKennie.
Press Secretary—Mrs. P. Wright.
Educational Sec.—Mrs. G. H. Patrick.
Sick Visiting Committee—Mrs. M. May and Mrs. G. H. Patrick.

A hearty vote of thanks was passed the retiring officers for their fine and untiring efforts during the course of the year.

Everyone present enjoyed the two very interesting talks given during the evening by Mrs. L. T. H. Pearson and Mrs. G. H. Patrick.

It was decided that a bowling tournament be held for the purpose of raising funds, commencing next week. Anyone interested in entering is asked to leave their name with Mr. Leonard Hill.

The next meeting is to be held on Feb. 2nd, at the home of Mrs. E. N. Bidley, at 6 o'clock.

Following the business, a pleasant half hour was spent over a delicious tea, served by Mrs. O. Wright and Mrs. Cecil Lambert.

Tail Shot Away, British Pilot Returns Safely

The British fighter plane had its tail assembly torn to shreds and almost completely shot away by cannon shells in dog fight with Nazi ships over Britain, but the pilot managed to bring his ship back to his base with a lack that involved firing 30 miles with a handkerchief. The pilot stood beside the battered tail.

Under The Street Lamp

by P. E. (Pat) O'Hoolley

The barmaid was a first, and when the sergeant went out to buy a paper, she pursed her lips invitingly and leaped over the counter towards the young private.

Putting her face against his, she whispered: "Now's your chance, darling."

The private, Mike Morgan, looked around the empty room.

"So it is," he remarked, and promptly complied the corporal's glass.

"Oh," went on the boarder. "All right, I'll shuffle and deal."

"Yes, I cut them!" came the stern reply.

"Ladies and gentlemen, I have here the famous... what will stand any kind of treatment. You can bend it double, you can hit it with a hammer, you can twist it, you can—"

Frank Disacre: "Say mister, can you comb your hair with it?"

Let's swim the sea of life together, Your charms I can't resist. She coyly dropped her eyes and murmured, "You're on my wading list."

NEW TEA CAR SERVES TROOPS AT BORDEN

Tea Car No. 1 is now on 24 hour duty at Camp Borden. During the day it serves the army at the rifle ranges and on manoeuvres. At night it serves the air force. The car, manned by Y. M. C. A. War Service staff, has been placed unserved by the disposal of the commanding officers of army and air force, Brig-General Eric McChesney and Group Captain Grandy, and was received by them with sincere expressions of appreciation.

On the black, unsheltered stretches of Camp Borden this Y.M.C.A. car will reach men on duty with hot tea and biscuits which will be given away without charge. The next two cars will arrive shortly in Nova Scotia where they will be used to visit remote outposts and it is probable that the fourth car will be sent to Stinson, N. H. The destination of the fifth car or the Y fleet has not yet been decided.

THE SPORTS LEDGER

Saturday night, Strathmore first Wings met the Standard team and took them to a score of 5-2. It would be incorrect to say "trimmed" as both teams were in need of a great deal more co-ordination. It amounted to a handy workout for both teams, but play was ragged, and there was a basic lack of co-ordinated team work apparent all through.

STRATHMORE NEEDS MORE HOUSES

YES, THEY ARE very much needed. It is distressing in spirit and retrogressive business for our town, when men come asking, pleading for a house, in which they can find shelter for themselves and their families.

Yes, building at present is costly but so is it costly to turn people away. Every self-respecting, self-sustaining family is an adjunct to our town.

We are proud of Strathmore. We want to build it up still more and add to it in various ways.

We have many advantages which attract people to making this their home. There may not be many who would be financially able to erect some four, five or six houses—but a group of men with a little money to invest and a good business instinct, could render a valuable service to the town and a reasonable profit for themselves.

What about it? The Spring is coming—the right time to build.

A small building boom for Strathmore. Let's have it.

PLANNING AND PLANTING FOR THE FUTURE

STRATHMORE TREES today present a picture that is a veritable fairland. Every branch and twig encased in a shimmering covering of glistening white, that in the sunshine sparkle like myriads of diamonds. With the clear blue sky overhead Nature has made a picture that no artist could adequately reproduce. Today these trees are "things of beauty."

Unfortunately many of these same trees will in about six months time be not a joy but a trial, and the subject of comments that are not printable.

Cotton producing trees, are a very great annoyance, a dangerous fire trap, and very destructive to small fruits, such as raspberries, strawberries, etc.

We are planning for the future as well as the present and all cotton trees should be replaced by those that will be as satisfactory as shade trees and minus the annual annoyance. It can be done—perhaps not all at once, but in ten to fifteen years, a remarkable improvement could be made, or which "future generations will rise up and call us blessed."

Replace your cotton producing trees by fruit trees, that in blossom time are objects of admiration, during the hot summer days, are sheltering shade trees, and in the autumn produce fruit in which our Province Alberta, is slowly but continuously growing more fruit conscious.

Let us do away with the cotton fluff pest. It may seem rather untimely to be discussing cotton fluff in zero weather, but Rome was not built in a day. We congratulate the Town Council on the decision at their Tuesday evening meeting to take steps to help eradicate this annual annoyance in Strathmore. We commend this action to other towns and cities.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE

The Standard is pleased to publish on another page, the very eulogistic report by D. M. Sullivan, High School Inspector, on the efficient work of the present High School teachers Messrs. S. H. Crowther and W. L. MacKenzie. It is gratifying to know that one's work is worthy such commendation by those competent to judge and so we congratulate Mr. Crowther and Mr. MacKenzie. Incidentally too, there are kind words for the Strathmore School Board, and these too are well deserved.

TOWN COUNCIL

TOWN ELECTIONS

The meeting on Tuesday night was the last Council for the term of office of the present body. It was announced that nominations for councillor will be received by the town clerk, Monday, February 11th, with the election coming off the week following. The annual meeting will be held January 31st.

MOVEMENT TO CURTAIL COTTON FLUFF NUISANCE

In connection with the heavy growth of cottonwood trees on third street, it was decided to wait until a little fire in the spring, and then have every tree in the heavy area seen out and replaced with fruit trees. Those that are left will be pollarded. It was mentioned also that the Calgary Power Company have been around town pruning some of the trees where they interfere with power lines.

FRUIT TREES TO REPLACE COTTON PRODUCING POPLARS

Orders for fruit trees to be planted in the town will be taken by the Secretary-Treasurer for planting in the springtime.

T. M. Wears read sections of the report of the Convention held last June, especially relative to the motion which the town forwarded. This dealt with simplifying the court procedure in many relief cases, and was passed.

A reply from the Dominion Government acknowledging the resolution forwarded by the Council in regards to adoption of the Howells-Strods report was read.

Steps were arranged to have some of the town property cleaned up. Since the Public address system at the skating rink is in such poor shape, and as the Junior Hockey Club are anxious to have it repaired, the Council allotted fifty per cent of the repairs, up to $25 for this purpose. The Club expect to make the other fifty per cent.

A new hose for the rink replacing the other which was badly worn in numerous places, has been on order for a month, and is expected before the season is over.

Approval was given the suggestion that the 23rd Birthday be given the rink for hockey from 8 to 9 p.m. on Thursday nights, paying the regular fee.

An application having been received, it was agreed to let the Messrs. Harris store as a residence, on provision that no fixtures be interfered with, and that notice of two weeks will be served.

PROBABLE REDUCTION OF CALGARY POWER RATES

A proposition of the Calgary Power Company to change the rate system on its present basis to a minimum of $2.50 for the first twenty kilowatts, and two cents per kw. over, was tabled until a representative could be appointed to explain in more detail its workings. It is felt that on the present power consumption, the citizens of the town would be saved from eight to nine hundred dollars per year. Some 75 per cent of the users of the power would benefit, and the rate would be stepped up slightly for the remainder. It was felt some satisfactory system might be arranged for these, in order to counter the higher rate. The change being made because consumption of power has gone up to a point where Strathmore is now in a different bracket, and where it can be supplied cheaper on the bulk.

Councillor Quinn explained the work that had been done on the pump-house, and the work that is following in the very near future. It was in very bad shape, and the mechanical set-up was in danger of breaking down, and causing severe damage to the motor. Expenses are expected to run very close to $250.00.

Here's What

YOU MUST PAY

IN INCOME, DEFENCE TAXES

Reminders of Dominion Income tax were in 20,000 Calgary mail boxes on Monday. Postmen set out on their rounds loaded to the chin with leaflets "To the taxpayer—important notice."

Each householder and business firm was informed "The national defence tax and the increased income tax are sought specifically for your notice because advance financial preparation is advisable to meet the increased tax burden. This is also to suggest payment by the new non interest bearing optional plan."

Exemptions and rates were clearly set forth, for married and single persons. New plans by which the taxpayer may meet his obligations by the instalment plan were also outlined where payment is not to be made in full by April 30, the date due.

National defence taxes for 1940 apply to one half the total income, as the tax did not come in force until July 1, and one half the tax credit for each dependent is allowed—$4. In 1941 the defence tax will apply to the total income, and the full allowance for each dependent. It will be granted.

The following table shows the combined amount of general income tax plus national defence tax due at 1940 rates—

Income	Single Person (No dependent)	Married Person (No dependent)	Married Person (1 dependent)	Married Person (2 dependents)

Familiar known to his many Strathmore friends as "Pinty", Walter Gray in a letter home, wishes to express his warm thanks to the Strathmore Society, for the Christmas parcel sent by them and also to other friends who have sent parcels of various articles, all of which are very greatly appreciated.

TRAGIC DEATH OF
ANY MOLLISON

It was a strange act on the part of fate which brought Mrs. Any Mollison to her death in the Thames Estuary Monday, January 7th. After having crossed the continent and ocean—so many times to meet death so near landing is a peculiar turn in the course of life.

A LETTER FROM

DOUG. HIRTLE

—101—

England, Nov. 26th, 1940
Well Mom—I sent you a Christmas card, and a post card and a tartan dresser scarf all this week, but I have not written yet, as here goes.

Tommy Dodge sends his love-and I guess now you want to hear about my leave.

Bill and I left here Saturday afternoon, hit London in time to go to the Paramount to a dance. The Paramount is underground, and therefore escape from an air raid shelter. They dance till about 11 o'clock, and then you can stay all night if you want. By 8:50 the place is packed and they won't let any one else in. They made us leave our revolvers at the Manager's office as we went in. We had a couple of nice girls picked out to walk home with us but they were staying all night, and as we wanted to leave town the same night we did not stay with them. We left the dance at about 10:15, caught a train at Boston shortly after that, and headed for Scotland. We got to Carlisle the next morning late, and decided to spend Sunday there. We found a couple of girls and went to the theatre, it wasn't a bad stage show—
some English movie actor happened to be passing through, so the manager had him up on the stage to sing a few songs, and made a great fuss over him.

We slept in a Citizens League place.
There have dormitories with beds for soldiers, free. Caught the morning train to Glasgow. We checked in at the Hilton Club—they also have a place for soldiers—50 per night (10s). Then we went down town, wandered into Woolworth's and of course I made all the way for the music counter. The girl was very nice so we dated her up and she told us she had a girl friend, Margaret Beatty, at the Christmas Card counter. We went over there and called her by name. She couldn't figure out how we knew her at first, anyway we bought some Christmas cards, we went out and mailed them, and arrived back at 6 o'clock to wait at the "stage door" of Woolworth's, and took the girls to a picture show.

Tuesday we went down to the Argyle Arcade and bought you, Edith, Shirley and Marie Scotch dresser scarves.
Then we mailed them and took a vander from the Glasgow Museum to see the Mummies and all that stuff.

At 6 bells we were again at Woolworth's back door. We had arranged to go skating, but Marg had a tooth out. Bill and I went skating, and Marg and I went to another show, as the snow up and down they wouldn't let us in, so we went to the Glasgow dance hall with my army boots on.

Wednesday we caught the train and went to Bathurst, and got to MacKenzie's just at dinner. Mrs. MacKenzie, Bill and I went to the show that night—the first time I ever saw Geo.
Formby, and he wasn't so bad. The next day we had a look around the Island, Bill and I spent most of the afternoon sitting in a cafe playing the gramophone and drinking coffee. At five we went around and had a look around the printing office, then Mr.
Mac. drove us around the Island a bit and we got home about 8:30 and found in a good Canadian Supper. It was sure nice to get up to breakfast in the morning (about 11 o'clock) and find a pot of real Canadian coffee waiting for you.

We left at about 2:30 Friday—I wanted to see Helen MacKenzie in Glasgow but it was late when we got there, about 5 o'clock p.m. and I figured that she'd be out for the evening by the time we could get out to the barracks.

Next day we headed for London. We got there too late to get into the dance
but we met two South African Air Force men. They were good chaps.
Bill and I got back here about 7:30
Sunday evening so spent the evening at the Legion.

Just before I left I got a parcel from Shirley and Marie. Thank them for me and I'll do so myself soon.
I blew my trumpet for a while last night and boy was my lip soft. The torture you went to go through listening to me blow was nothing compared to what it would be now if you could hear me struggling to blow a few notes da-da-da-da.

Merry Christmas Mom, and pass
that along to the rest of the family.
Till Pop to give you a great big kiss
for me.

So long Mom. Good luck and keep cheerful.
With all my love, Doug.

Vast Economic Change Foreseen
People have seen how we can mobilize ourselves for war and will see to it that we mobilize ourselves similarly for peace. Bruce Hutchison, Canadian journalist and economist, said in an address at Vancouver on December 29th. The old world is gone, said Mr. Hutchison, and Canada will come out of the war with a vastly different economy.
